Todd's Furniture Store
~~114~~ 114 South Cross Street (Cannon St. building)
Chestertown, Md 21620

5. Description of Physical Appearance

Todd's Furniture Store is within the Chestertown Historic District, and consists of 4 buildings which have been altered and interconnected over the years to form the total business establishment formerly known as "Todd's Furniture Store". For presentation in this application the buildings will be view seperately.(Exhibit C)

Building #4, at rear of building #3 with facade on Cannon St.

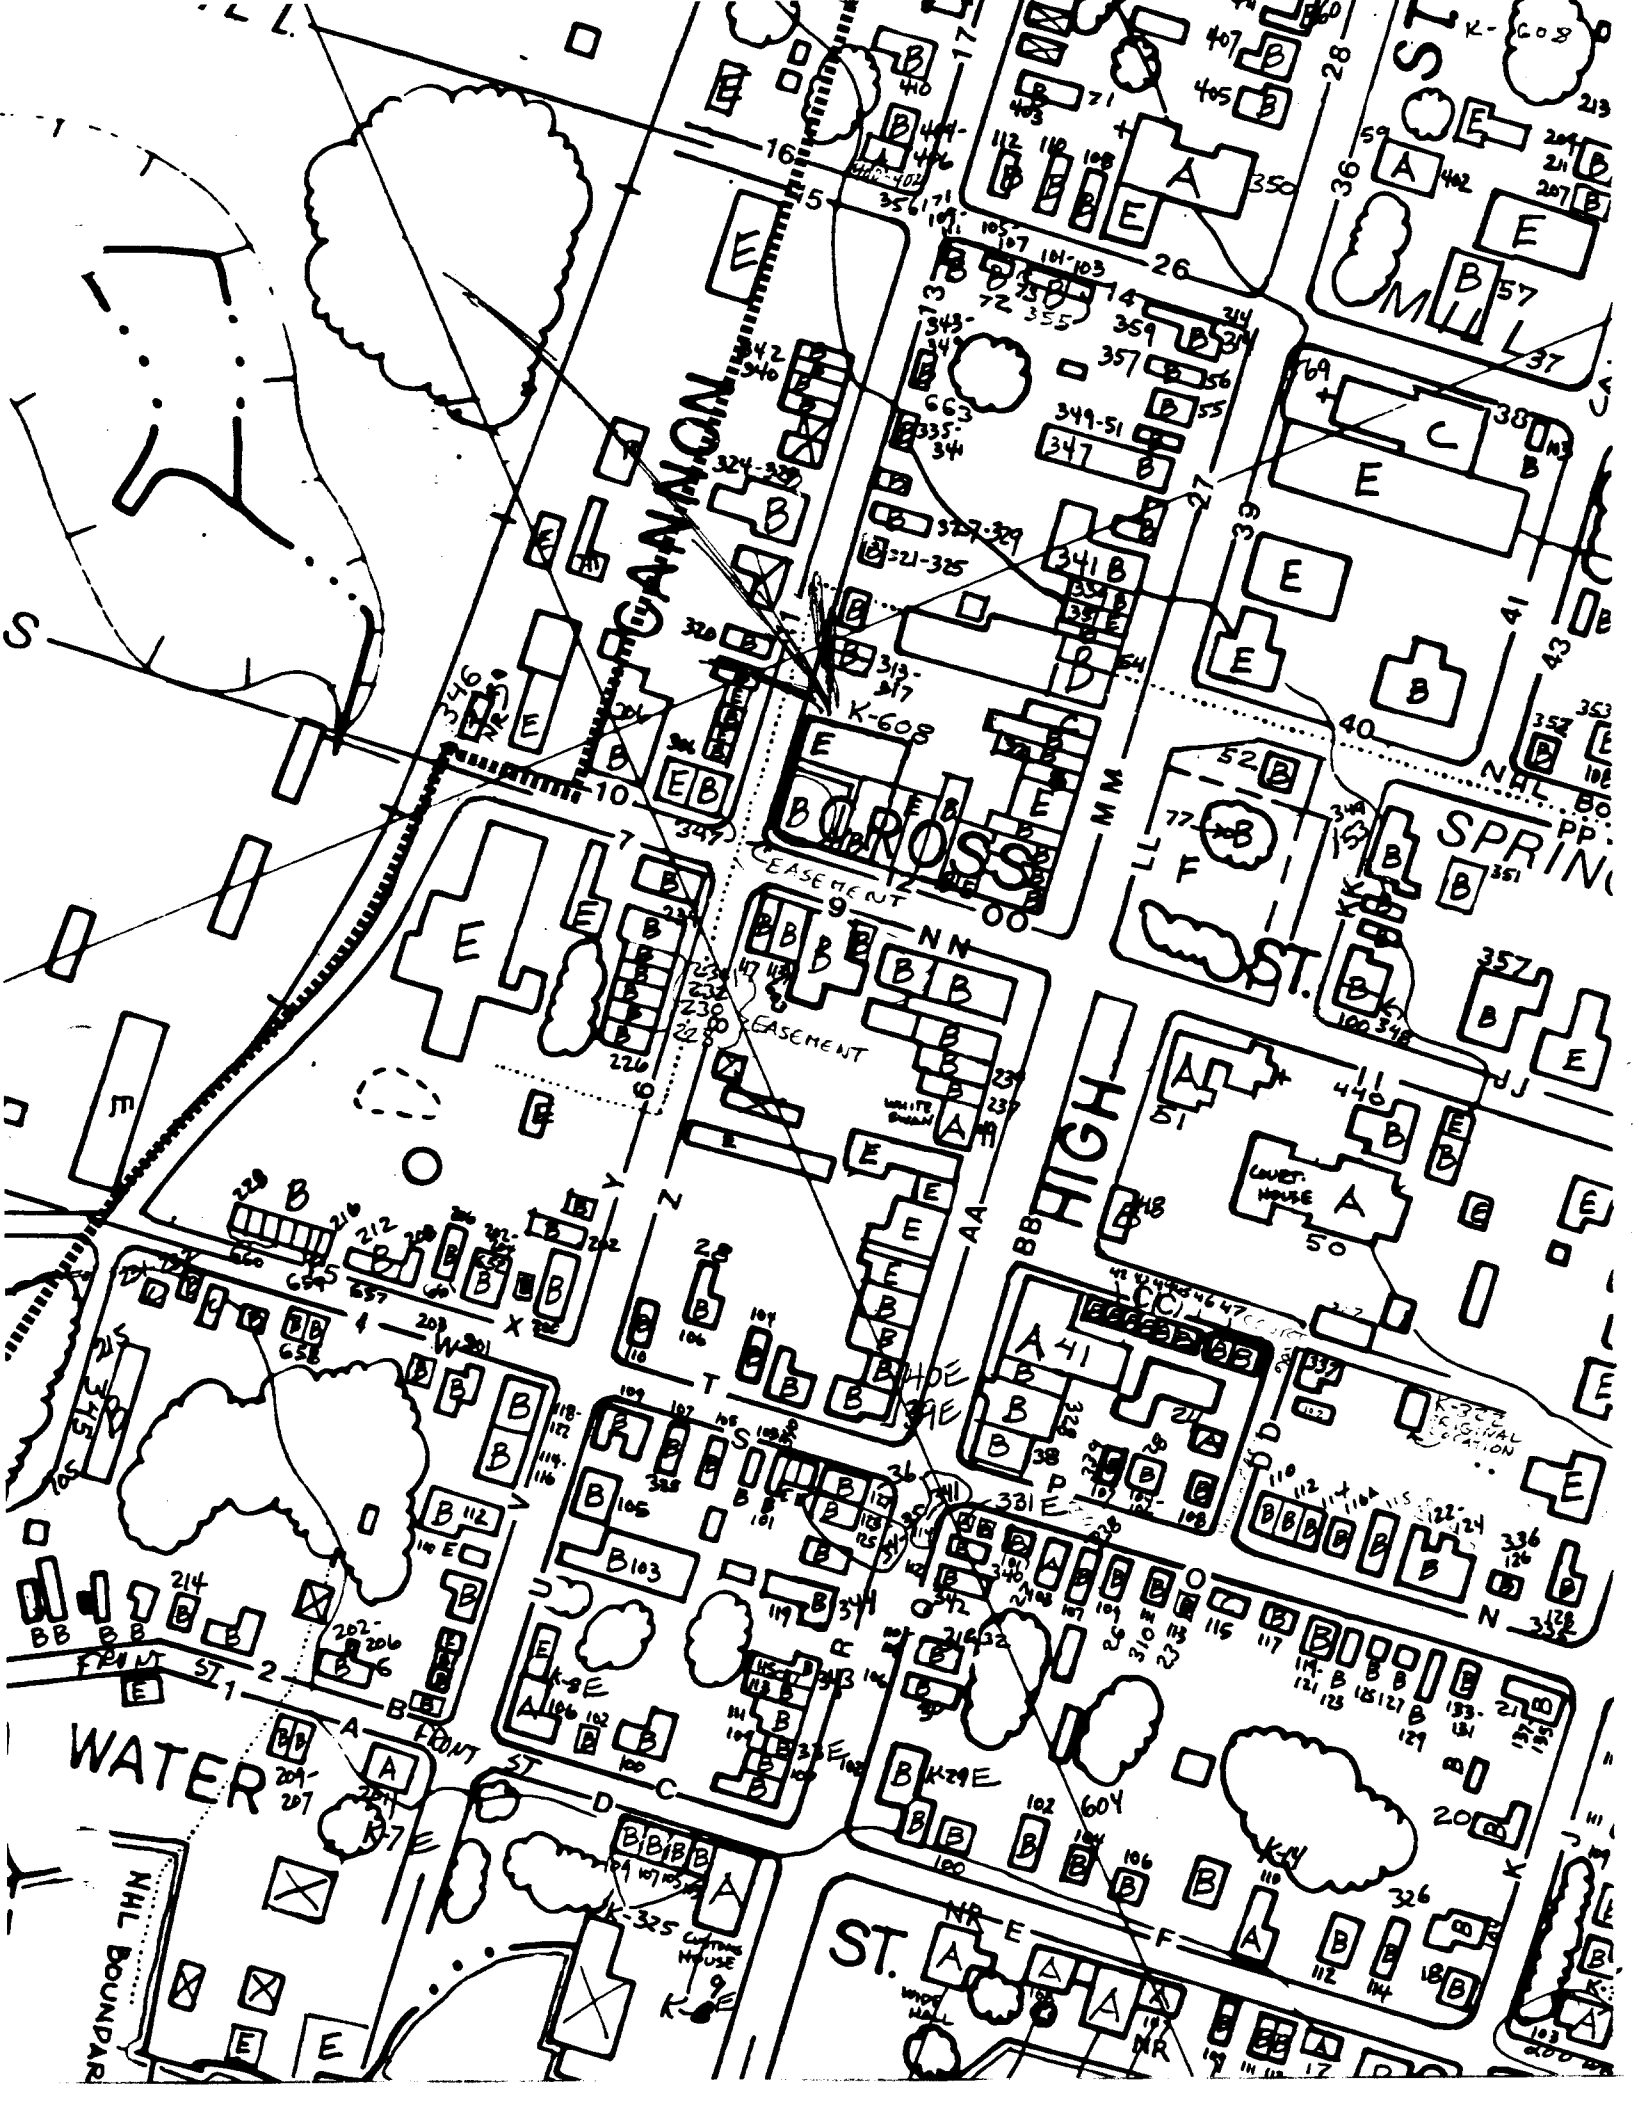

This is a rectangular shaped structure of 1 story and a partial second story (see fig. #1) which exits onto Cannon Street (see fig #2) and attaches to the rear of building #3 (see fig. #3). The building is a painted cement block structure with a brick facade on Cannon Street (see fig. #2) and a clapboard second story (see fig. #3) behind building #3. It features large steel casement windows and 2 large overhead garage doors. There is a cement floor and unpainted cement block interior walls. The second level floor is of T&G pine. The roof is shingle and metal and the ceiling is exposed. As evidenced by figures 1,2 and 3 the building if of relatively recent construction, 1950's, and contains on historic fabric.

6. Statement of Significance

The building described herein is located within the Chestertown Historic District and is a relatively recent addition to this Colonial era town established in 1706. This structure was built in the early 1950's and as part of the towns' more recent history, the building does not contain any of the architectural characteristics of the many significant properties in the Historic District.

The building does not contain any historic fabric on the exterior or interior due to its "modern day" construction and construction methods and due to the fact that the building was built for utility purposes, a garage.

The building does not warrant certification as significant since it does not add to the feeling, sense of time or place of the Historic District.
